The State Register has harped on this unpleasant string to an unseemly extent. Let us hear no more of it. The time for these petty bickerings is past.

N. B Baker, the nominee of the "Union" Convention of Lows, for Governor of that State, declines to accept the honor tendered him, and the ticket on which he was placed in now without a head. The contest is, then, narrowed down to Kirkwood and Mason—the latter being more than suspected of disloyally to the Government and the Union cause. He will unquestionally be beaten; but not so effectually as if all parties and all men in favor of procecuting the war to an honorable peace—by that we mean the punishment of the national domain—had united in a vigorous expression of their patriotic sentiments, at the colls. Thereands of men who have here ofter acted with the Democra ic party—articularly those who saw in Mr. Doug's an expendent of honorable peace—will of touch Mason, no matter how heavily the arty lash. The series and series of the s Never have Fair-seckers suffered more dis-comforts. Those who went to Brighton by the roads, did so through unfragrant locali-ties, for we do aver that Bridgeport is no gar-den of roses, and the sanghter-houses and with this new order of things we are content.

But to return. The Hall is pretty well fes tooned with bed quilts of almost all patterns.

Some of them appear to have done service in origin. Many of them exhibit great skill and arduous labor—all too claborate to suit our views. We consider this kind of work out of place, and would never offer a premium for it, while the sawing machine could be used to perform the same useful work, without con-veying the idea of laborious hours spent in useless employment, instead of mental cul-ture. We believe there is a higher field for the employment of female labor than to spend a year of ardent toil on the ornamentation of a bed quilt. Patchwork is well enough for little girls, but we consider it of no great value for grown up people. Yet we must be allowed ever to admire the skill and handl work of our lady friends, and can but regret.

Covy of Gen. Holder of Bird's Point is nearly rained. It is a loss to the State that no money can replaces to have this fine collection of our native songsters thus rulised by the exposure from leaky roofs. No amount of labor can ever restore their beauty, or recover

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, &c.
There was no other department that experienced so little damage to srticles on exhibition, nor any other whose business was so slightly affected by the drenching rain of Friday night, as this. The attendance of both exhibitors and spectators was comparatively good. Pitt's engine, with numerous pieces of machinery attached, was in operation; the sugar mills and evaporators were all busy and drew crowds of the curious; several separators, and threshers, and all the wind-mills and water clevafors were in fall biast; presenting more life and activity than any other portion of the grounds.

Owing to the general dissatisfaction with the partial, unexpected and hasty trial of threshing machines, on Friday, there will be another irial at 2 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, in which all competitors are invited to particulate.

Ipala.

Pitts' Thresher and Separator has the reputation among the farmers, (who have examined all on exhibition) of being the most complete machine, in every respect. Twenty five years ago, Hiram & Pitts, Esq., invented and patented 'a machine for threshing and cleaning grain at one operation." This was the first introduction of threshing machines; and as Mr. Pitts has devoted his whole attention, from that period to the present time, to the manufacture and impresented of this machine, it is a matter of no surprise that this machine stands now without a encousaful rival. In both Europe and America it has generally taken the highest pregitams, wherever exhibited. Several new and important improvements have been added the present season, which can be seen upon their machine on exhibition, as well as by their neal illustrated circular, to which we refer for particulars. In what we have said of Pitts & Co.'s machine, we would not be understood as throwing cold water upon others on exhibition, but the orpressions are our candid opinions, after as examination of the several michines, and are an examination of the several michines, and are in urison with the opinions of some, of the best farmers in the State, who have given the malier deliberate and careful study.

report. At this juncture, when omitry, of which St. Louis is counce the rout of the rebels in countries, within the past few with an aggregate loss of more than hundred men, and by greatly inferior ces on our side. Gen. Rosecrans and lates are doing a splendid wor Is may not be generally known, but is true, that the Government has perempt rily ordered six thousand well armed troog from Fremont's department, to Washin ton. In view of the work that is laid of fir the West to secondlab, this is hard. fair. If the West is to do all the figi in this war, we insist that New York Pennsylvania shall stand aside, and

States that are now pouring out their quota of loyal fighting men. If this is done, is it not time that drafting is the l was commenced? newspapers, in relation to what aste effect. He now has seen

COL. PHANK P. BLAIR, Jr.

The loyal men hereaway will be great surprised to learn that Hon. F. P. Bis Colenel of the First Missouri Yelantee has been arrested by order of Gen. I mont, and that he is now under milited dures in St. Louis. We have for an time been aware that between the Co. have now developed. The public will be but little interested in knowing the origin but little interested in knowing the origin of this unhappy affair; and we would be gind to be rid of the obligation to write a line in relation to it. But we gratily our reader's curiosity enough to say that the quarrel is not the growth of a day, nor the momentary outburst of two heavy tempers. Well concealed from all but the parties themselves and their most intimate friends, it has been increasing in intensity from day to day and week to week; and has meanwhile defied all offorts of diplemacy to bring it to a satisfactory conclusion. The visit of Mrs. Fremont to Washington was not without reference to it; and Montgomery Blair's return visit to St. Louis was made specially with a view of an honorable adjustcially with a view of an honorable adjust ment. But neither the wit of woman nor the common sense of man had the hopedfor effect; and yesterday the disagreement colinicated in an arrest. We express no epision of the merits of the case, nor do we venture to predict how it will terminate. It is sufficient to say that among the Union men of St. Louis, there is a general disposition to sustain Frement and censure Blair. This

Louis, there is a general disposition to sustain Fremont and censure Bluir. This is particularly marked among the Germans, who seem, says a gentleman who came up on last evening's train, to blame the Colonel for all the misfortunes which our cause in Missouri has endured, and to be glad that his power for mischief is now at an end. We do not defend nor attack their ordinions; but we see the mistake into which they have fallen in supposing that an end has been reached. The worst efficient of the rupture have yet to come. Blair has a brother in the Cabinet who will warmly espouse his cause; his father's voice is still satisfied to influence and respect in antional affairs; his friends are many and powerful; and the equabble which was only locally perfect out in St. Louis, by bring transferred to the Cabinet, becomes an affair of national magnitude, involving Fremoni's tenure of his high place, and, possibly, by his resignation of transfer to another post, the success of our arms in the West. Viewed thus it is a scripus affair. We shall know more of it to morrow, and our readers will have all that the public Ought to know.

There is reason to fear that the President's order countermanding Gen Fromont's proclamation will have a very disastrous effect not only on Missouri but on Kentucky. The modes operands is obvious. The penalty of rebellion being removed, all those who are secessionists at heart will no leager be restrained by their fears. The slave owner can now master his retainers, get on his horse and go to the wars, leaving his negroes at home, under the solemn insurance of the President, to raise corn and beef for him and his family. The only risk he assumes is that of to raise corn and heef for him and his dunily. The only risk he assumes is that of being shot on the battle field—the same risk which is usemed by the soldiers of the Union. Thus there is a positive inducement held out to secession sympathizers to take ap arms.

Again: The neutral Kentuckian or Riscourian, finding himself between two fires, and liable to fall into the hands of a Union army or a rebel, tamy any day, says to himself. "If I declare for the Union and the rebels got me they will rob me of everything and perhaps take my life; but if I alse with the abels and the Unionists catch me, they will do me no harm. Has not the Prusiant guaranteed me my slaves under all tireamstances? So, hursh for Jeff Detal." Thus, in the case of neutrals, a premin is set upon rebellion and a discount area to loyalty, and the whole powered by the great Seal of State under the Presline's hand,
